Sixth Form Dress Code

Sixth form students are leaders in the school community. Your dress and appearance must therefore be appropriate to support and encourage the ethos of the School.

Appearance is required to be smart, clean and respectable.

- Hair must not be dyed unnatural colours. Extreme fashion cuts and styles are not suitable
- Make up should be discreet. Body piercings or tattoos are not acceptable. Apart from the ears, and one small nose-stud, no other visible body-piercings are allowed.
- Students may choose to wear a watch. Other jewellery may be worn but should be discrete.

Dress code

Students should wear:

- Formal shirt/blouse with collar (no polo shirts). The shirt/blouse can be long or short sleeved but not lumberjack style. Ties are not compulsory
- Suit jacket to be worn with a non collared shirt/blouse
- Formal tailored trousers/skirt e.g. black/grey/blue.
- Smart low heeled or flat shoes/ boots (not trainers, flip-flops, sandals or stiletto heels)
- No long socks or patterned tights.

Students may choose to wear:

- Suit jacket
- V-neck jumpers, which show the collar or blouse
- Smart cardigans
- Smart business dresses

The following items are not suitable for sixth form students at CGS

- Headwear including baseball caps or hats (unless for religious observance)
- T-shirts or football shirts
- Sweatshirts/hoodies
- "Strappy" tops
- Leggings
- Roll-neck jumpers
- Clothing with inappropriate logos or slogans
- Tracksuits (except for sport)
- Shorts, culottes, cords, combats

We seek to use lively minds, to work hard, to develop all our talents and to grow through sharing, to be the best version of ourselves

- Denim or leather/faux leather clothing of any description, including jackets, skirts or jeans.
- Ugg style boots/Converse style shoes or boots/Dr Marten style boots

Outdoor coats must be removed when in the building.

Skirts and tops must be of an appropriate style and length. Midriffs must not be revealed.

CGS staff reserve the right to judge clothing or appearance as unsuitable.

The ultimate decision on whether clothing is acceptable rests with the Head and/or Deputy Head of Sixth Form. Students may be required to change if their dress is deemed unsuitable for school.

These lists are not exhaustive and serve only as guidelines. Persistent failure to comply with these requirements will result in a student being subject to KS5 sanctions.

This dress code has been agreed following consultation with the Sixth Form Council.
